HONGKONG, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1905.

A NEW RUSSIA.

Is the Czar of all the Russias has sufficient backbone to adhere to his decision to allow the people of his forced to endure life. The very fact that the jubilant crowds paused in the midst of their rejoicings to sing the impressive, heart-stirring, Slav Hymn for the Dead on the scenes where the martyrs' crimson life-blood ran shows that there is something good in the Russian workman at heart after all. He is a man like the rest of us, with keen and tender feelings and human impulses, and whilst those traits exist there is hope for his Empire. Though late in the day the Czar has given his people a new and richer lease of life, and if their lawful desires are gently fostered he should yet drag the nation out of the slough of despair into which it has been thoughtlessly hurled, and create a new power to stand with the rest of the civilized countries and be respected and admired by them.

Deadly mines are still drifting promiscuously about northern seas. Two steamers calling at Tientsin recently sighted specimens and realising the 100 to 1 chance of being blown up that they ran if they interfered with them, probably left them alone to ultimately work destruction upon some near-sighted steamer. The great menace that these mines are never seems to force itself upon the attention of the Admiralty, and until one blows a tremendous hole in the hull of one of our first-class men-of-war it is possible that the existence of mines will be denied—the destruction of merchantmen notwithstanding. Probably our Admiralty deems it to be the duty of the sowers of the mines to go and reap the crop that awaits garnering, but since they show no disposition to do it why should innocent merchantmen have to run the risk of being sunk on the instant in mid-ocean? Already these vessels have done much to sink or to sink by mines, and it's nearly time that they were relieved of the dangerous job. The navy is here to protect the mercantile marine, and if it cannot see its way clear to do it, some strong representations should be made to Japan and Russia to go out and collect the deadly agents they set adrift. A combined systematic sea-sweeping expedition should be the means of locating many mines, and saving many lives and much property.

Some amusing stories are going the rounds of the Japanese papers concerning the preparations made by the citizens of Tokio to welcome the British Fleet, and as the stories are mostly at the expense of the Japanese themselves they show that the 'allies' will stand a little joking. One of the best, says the Yokohama Herald, is in connection with the placards, which were so freely posted by the shopkeepers in Tokio, offering a special reduction in prices to 'our gallant allies.' One of these placards posted over the shop of a dealer in charcoal and firewood aroused the criticisms of an English-speaking friend, who remarked it was hardly likely that the British officers and sailors would want to purchase charcoal and firewood. 'I thought it was a congratulatory notice,' said the shop-keeper. 'I put it up because the undertaker next door has got one exactly like it.' At another shop where one of these placards was posted—a boiled beef shop—a student introduced a British sailor to partake of the delicacy. Something in the nature of the portions brought them struck the student and he asked whether they were not rather small. 'Oh, yes,' was the reply; 'you see we are allowing fifteen per cent reduction.' The brilliant genius who originated the idea of granting 'our gallant allies' a special reduction is suffering badly at the hands of the Tokio wits.

The Tables of British and Foreign Shipping issued by the Board of Trade are consoling. They prove that if Manufacturing and Commercial supremacy are departing from us, we still maintain and indeed have increased our lead in shipping. Germany ranks second for number of vessels but a very bad second, only about 19 per cent of our total; while of new ships we are building yearly nearly twice as many as Germany, France and the United States put together. The worst feature of the report is the steady increase in the number of alien seamen in our mercantile marine. Somehow we fail to make the life of a sailor attractive enough to the best class of men. It is only one of the many occupations that seem steadily diminishing in popularity year by year.

The work of an agricultural labourer is another. Mr. John Collings has a long letter in the Times of September 8 denouncing the emigration schemes of General Booth as taking away ten of thousands of the best of the poor, while there are vast areas in our own country that have gone out of cultivation and deserve colonising quite as much as Canada or the Australian bush. Mr. Collings' remedy is the old one of all state socialists. The Government is to do something. He promises a bill next year but any private member's bill is hopeless of enactment now. Meanwhile the General's scheme for relieving agricultural distress holds the field, and the City of London is rewarding its author with the high honour of the City's freedom.

LOCAL AND COAST NEWS.

The Hupu Bank in Tientsin was officially opened on Oct. 2.

Admiral Togo's religious service for the naval victims of the war took place on Oct. 29.

The Nippon Yusen Kaisha has undertaken the transportation from Russia of the Japanese prisoners there.

The Japanese Postal Department has issued a set of two postcards in commemoration of the Grand Naval Review.

Nineteen Japanese vessels have been wrecked near Nigata on the north coast of Nippon, and the damage is considerable.

It is stated that the Koreans have been forbidden by their Government to wear white clothes in future, the wearing of blue, black, indigo, and purple being now enjoined on them.

It is reported that the Waiwaps have granted a French concession for the extension of the Annam railway to the Yunnan boundary and that the construction is to begin immediately.

A farewell entertainment, including some three hundred of the friends, was given to Mr. McLeavy Brown, late of the Korean Customs, on board the "Kosai Maru" at Chemulpo on Oct. 19th.

It appears that the protest against the Peace Treaty addressed by Corea to the English and Japanese Legations were the private effort of the Foreign Minister and were not previously submitted to the Cabinet.

The Chinese Ministers abroad have presented a joint memorial urging that a date may be fixed for the departure of the travelling commissioners in order that they may not make themselves the laughing-stock of the world.

Their Majesties have approved the two Memorials presented by Viceroy Chou Fu reporting the result of his investigations into the question of mines in Kiangsu, Anhui, and Kiangsi, and the accounts of the Wooming and Pinghsing railways.

The Yokohama branch of the British Navy League presented Admiral Togo on Trafalgar Day with an address in a silver casket, which was graciously received and acknowledged by the Japanese Nelson on his ship, the "Shikishima."

There are counter claims by the Chinese and Russian authorities in regard to the warships interned at Shanghai; the Chinese claim expenses for storage, labour, etc., while the Russians claim that part of the guns have been allowed to become rusty and ask damages accordingly.

No Band.

There will be no band performance at the Hongkong Hotel on Saturday night, owing to the Band having an official engagement.

The Impresario Dalai Lama.

In spite of the frequent reports during the past six months that the Dalai Lama, or Buddhist Pontiff, was preparing to leave Urga, where he has been staying ever since his flight from Lhasa fourteen months or so ago, for the last-named city, it seems that the impresario personage, who it is alleged, has been holding quite an intrigue with Russian emissaries sent from across the border, was still in Urga some three weeks ago. The Mongolian Superintendent, we learn, has lately received a report from Urga to the effect that the Dalai Lama is preparing now to return to Lhasa in earnest, his avarice having been since satisfied by tribute from Mongol believers in gold and silver amounting to a total of quite a million taels.

If you are weak, tired, nervous or run-down, the best thing you can take to reinvigorate your debilitated system is Stearns' Wine of Cod Liver Oil. No other cod liver oil preparation gives as good results and none is nicer to take.

Sore Muscles.

PROMINENT athletes throughout the country find that the best treatment for sore muscles after severe exercise or hard work of any kind, is a hot bath at bedtime, which opens the pores. This should immediately be followed with an application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm vigorously rubbed into the skin. This liniment removes all stiffness and soreness and has a soothing, rub-draw, set-it-easy, prompt effect and keeps the muscles in good condition. For sale by All Dealers. WATKINS & CO., Ltd., General Agents.

LOCAL AND COAST NEWS.

The extraordinary war taxation is to be continued in Japan until March 1907.

Money being scarce, the Empress Dowager has forbidden any elaborate expenditure on her birthday festivities.

Captain Edwards, 1st-Sea Gerkhas, has been selected for appointment as Supply and Transport Officer in North China.

Captain Maitland, Gordon Highlanders, has been selected as Aide-de-Camp to Lieutenant-General Sir Ian Hamilton, and is to be home from India.

The German Minister (Baron von Mumm) was to leave Peking on Oct. 27 but owing to orders from his Home Government that diplomatic matters of importance required his presence for the time being, his departure has been indefinitely postponed.

A Little War.

A correspondent writes to the N. O. Daily News from Kansu under date the 10th ult.:—The Chinese and the Tibetans of Koolu, near Sining, have been fighting for a month past. The Chinese have sent troops, but the position is so favourable to the Tibetans that the fight may go on for a long time but the Chinese must win in the end, as they are well armed and can procure supplies.

Unjust Weights.

A Chinese shopkeeper from No 361 Queen's Road Central was charged, at the Magistrate's court, this morning, by Inspector Withers with using weights and scales to the prejudice of the purchaser. The weights were tested by the inspector and found to be from three and a half per cent in favour of the seller. Defendant pleaded that he had recently purchased the scales and that he used them as he obtained them, without knowing that they were unjust. His excuse was, however, of no avail and he was ordered to pay a fine of $200. A second shopkeeper, from No 569 Queen's Road, was charged with a similar offence but in this instance the scales were found to be three per cent in favour of the buyer. The defendant told the Bench that he would not have used the scales and given his customers more than they were entitled to had he known that they were operating against him, and at His Worship's suggestion the summons was withdrawn.

Festivities in Japan.

The Japanese Gazette issued a supplement on Oct. 21st giving a plan of the great naval review off Yokohama on the 23rd, with illustrations of all the Japanese men-of-war. The Japanese fleet included 13 armoured vessels, 15 cruisers, 10 dispatch-boats, gunboats, etc., 8 converted cruisers, 23 destroyers, a large number of torpedo-boats, a flotilla of submarines, and 9 prizes, including the armoured vessel "Pereval," "Poltava," "Nicholai I," "Apraxine," and "Sensariva." The British squadron was composed of 6 cruisers, the "Albatross," and 8 destroyers, and the full total of vessels was made up by the presence of the U. S. battleship "Wisconsin." Admiral Togo was in command of the combined Japanese fleet, Admiral Noel of the British squadron, and Captain Richardson Glover of the "Wisconsin." The Emperor reviewed the display from the deck of the armoured cruiser "Asama." The festivities at Tokio and Yokohama were on a

INTRODUCTION

To those who have patronized us, in foreign lands, we need none; but, in addressing ourselves to the Public of Hongkong for the first time, we wish to impress upon your minds that, although new and strangers to you here, we have been established for many years in England, and some of our largest orders have come to us by post from China.

LUCIOS DIAMONDS

ARE BY FAR THE NEAREST APPROACH TO GENUINE DIAMONDS EVER DISCOVERED.

They have all the LUSTRE

FIRE

LIFE

BRILLIANCY

of old mine stones. They will stand all acids, heat, alkali, etc. In fact they can be WORN AND WASHED LIKE REAL DIAMONDS, and they are the only imitations on earth that do not depend on artificial backing for their brilliancy. So near do these stones resemble real diamonds that experts have been deceived, and it is a known fact that money lenders have often loaned money on them, far in excess of their value.

In order to introduce these marvellous Stones quickly, we will sell a limited number of beautiful, brilliant

set in the newest real jewellery designs of rings, brooches, earrings, scarfpins, studs, hatpins, links, bracelets, etc., etc., at the low, introductory price of

EACH.

OUR GUARANTEE

We warrant each and every stone to retain its brilliancy for ever, and the mountings to give perfect satisfaction.

We will give

10,000 DOLLARS

to any Charitable Institution if it can be shown that we have ever refused to replace a stone that did not give entire satisfaction.

OPENING
FRIDAY MORNING.

In order to introduce these marvellous Stones quickly, we will sell a limited number of beautiful, brilliant
